For he DELIVERS
the needy
when he calls,
the poor and him
who has no helper.

THANKFUL FOR AN AMAZING WEEK

On Tuesday, sixteen of us loaded up in three vehicles headed to Arlington, TX, for the annual SOAR Student Conference hosted by the BMA of America. Over 1,600 students, sponsors and volunteers came together for this event!

Our students were challenged to go ALL IN for Jesus—becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ and also being trained to be a disciple-maker.

The Allen family (Wade, Joanna and Carly) headed up the prayer room for the conference. Thank you to all who signed up to be a part of the “virtual prayer team”! Your impact on the week was more than you will ever realize!

If you have never been to SOAR, it's difficult to explain how busy and jam-packed these few days can be! Even in stressful and tiring situations, our students had great attitudes and were easy-going which made the trip great!

We also had some opportunities to hang out with some other groups from our sister churches here in NWA—Calvary Baptist in Fayetteville, Summers Baptist and Maysville Missionary Baptist.

We want to thank the church for their generous support of the student ministry! We could not do this without you!

Thank You...

I want to take a moment to thank you for honoring me for ten years of service to this church last weekend. It is not often that I am surprised, so you did a good job keeping the secret! (I'm not sure if that should worry me though! 😊)

In all seriousness, it is my privilege to be able to serve as your pastor! I am looking forward to many more years of ministering together here at Temple. Thank you for that honor!
