

God,

you know the private lives
of those sitting near me.
Prompt me to reach out
to them in whatever ways
will best show your love.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR RESPONSE LAST WEEK

I would like to thank each leader who participated in last week's ministry expo, I want to thank you for participating by completing the ministry survey. I have spoken with many of you this past week in regard to some of your responses—and some of these surveys helped inform the staff as we were working through the various offices and positions that will be considered tonight in our annual business meeting. Again, I want to thank you for your willingness to serve one another!

As I spoke with various members of the church this past week, it became obvious to me that I had not fully calculated the impact of the content of this survey. I explained from the outset that it was not intended to be comprehensive, but for some, the survey did not provide them with any realistic options for service. There were some who had a desire to volunteer their service, but did not find any appropriate categories.

For this I am sorry! My point of view was focused too narrowly on areas of service that require physical, technical or teaching acumen; but there are so many other ways that people are able to serve in the church!

If this is true of you, please do not hesitate to reach out to the pastoral staff so that we might be able to help you in this quest for finding your unique role in this Body of Christ.
