QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

In Luke 9:51, to what is the Bible referring when it said, “the days drew near for him to be taken up”? Why was Jesus focused on going to Jerusalem? (c.f. Luke 13:31-35)

Where does Jesus go next? How was He received in this place?

How does that compare to His previous ministry in this region? (c.f. John 4:1-45, focusing on verses 39-43)

Why did the Samaritans reject Jesus? What was their opinion about Jews and worship in Jerusalem? (c.f. John 4:20-22)

How did James and John respond to this rejection? What was Jesus’ response to them, and also to the Samaritans?

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

In Luke 9:57-62, who are these people who are talking to Jesus? What do we know about them?

What common word do we see in each of these men's statements to Jesus and Jesus' command to the second individual?

What does it mean to "follow" in this context?

In verses 58, 60 and 62, what was Jesus trying to communicate to these individuals? Considering this, what is the overriding theme for this passage of Scripture?
