DR. JOHN DAVID SMITH
BMA GLOBAL PRESIDENT

“With a deep conviction concerning local church involvement in the Mission of Christ, the BMA Department of Missions (now known as BMA Global) was born in 1950. The goal was, and remains, to come alongside local churches in the fulfillment of our Christ-given mission and to seek enduring impact.

“Over the decades, faithful leaders and servants have navigated tumultuous waters and have remained faithful to the core values. Simple beginnings that included one missionary family to Mexico and another to Brazil have grown to over four hundred missionaries in 65 countries. Thank you Lord for Your presence, provision, and preserving power in and through BMA Global for these 75 years. We celebrate the rich history of missions through our association of churches.”
