

This isn't death,
it's glory!

It isn't dark,
it's light.

it isn't stumbling, groping,
or even faith —
it's sight.

This isn't grief, it's having
my last tear wiped away.

*It's sunrise.
it's the morning
of my eternal day!*

Today marks the beginning of our final week reading through Bill Elliff's book, The Essential Presence. It is my hope and prayer that this book has been a blessing to you these past nine weeks.

Written on the back cover of the book, it says, "Many men and women have heard God's invitation, but failed to respond. They live lives of quiet desperation, never having the one thing that would equip them to do everything. They have missed the Essential Presence." I hope that this is not describing you! I pray that you are walking with the Lord daily, and that you are fulfilling His call on your life.

If this book has impacted you in one way or another, would you let me or one of the other pastors know? We love to hear about the ways in which God is working in your lives. You can do this by dropping us a note, sending us an email or even just shoot us a text message.

I gave this book to a friend a few weeks ago. He sent me a text recently: "Wade, THANK YOU for the book! Just what I needed in this season!"

We have a few books still available. Do you have a friend who needs to know more about The Essential Presence? Let me encourage you to bless them with it!
